GUATEMALA 1600

Named after the Lipzodes manuscript, this ensemble of recorders, shawms, voices, dulcians, and percussion, offers a fascinating program of 16th century Guatemalan music based on manuscripts found in pueblos in the region of the Cuchumatán mountain range (state of Huehuetenango, in the northwest corner of Guatemala), sung in Latin, Spanish, Nahuatl, and Jucatec-Chuj languages.

E - CARAVAN ENSEMBLE
MARCH 20 (SA) 5:00
UWM HELENE ZELAZO CENTER

THE SPIRIT OF SEPHARAD

This soul-stirring musical journey traces the 500 year migration of Sephardic music from Medieval Spain across North Africa to the Middle East. Combining music, dance, and illuminating projections, these virtuoso performers celebrate the rich cultural heritage of the Sephardic/Mizrahi experience that promotes the possibility of coexistence, respect, tolerance, and peace among all peoples.

F - RED PRIEST
APRIL 17 (SA) 7:30
WISCONSIN LUTHERAN COLLEGE

piersadams.com/RedPriest

PIRATES OF THE BAROQUE

This hugely popular program features stolen master-works and forgotten jewels of the Baroque era performed with swash-buckling virtuosity, including Vivaldi's Tempesta di Mare Concerto, a Pirate Suite by Couperin, the 'Albinoni' Adagio and works by Bach, Tartini, Simonetti, Leclair, Vitali and Handel.
