D - FEBRUARY 12 (SA) 5:00 PLAINE & EASIE ALL SAINTS' CATHEDRAL

CONTINENTAL CONNECTIONS

Renaissance England was a vibrant musical mélange – the result of its free exchange of art and culture with the Continent. Connect with this multilingual array of madrigals, instrumentals, pop tunes, lute songs and dances that run from serious to bawdy to cerebral, in a program for (and about) everyone! This Seattle-based ensemble was a recent winner of Early Music America's Medieval/Renaissance competition, and is presented with support from EMA as part of its 25th Anniversary Celebration.

JOIN US FOR A FRENCH GOURMET FEAST

Continuing the continental theme, a special gourmet menu awaits those who reserve space for this elegant fundraiser – immediately following the concert. The French theme includes Pissaladiere Nicoise, Gorgonzola & Hazelnut-Stuffed Pear, Filet of Beef Bourguignon, and Profiteroles. Check the order form or our website for the complete menu and details.

E - MARCH 19 (SA) 5:00 SINFONIA NEW YORK HELENE ZELAZO CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

THE ART & ECSTASY OF THE CHACONNE

A lascivious reputation guaranteed its popularity! The Chaconne, the dance originating in Renaissance Latin America, scandalized the European church. From the streets of Spain to the mind of Bach, principal soloists of Sinfonia New York present a range of interpretations with Baroque dancers, lute and soprano onstage at UWM's Zelazo Center.

3:00 SILENT AUCTION & CHOCOLATE RECEPTION

Join your Early Music Now friends before the concert for a feast of gourmet chocolates and coffee, as you peruse the treasures on display for your purchase. This important annual fundraising activity also invites your contribution of items for sale. Contact Ralph Bielenberg, Auction Chairman, at 262.542.5294 for further information.

F - APRIL 30 (SA) 5:00 FLANDERS RECORDER QUARTET WISCONSIN LUTHERAN COLLEGE

THE SIX WIVES OF HENRY VIII

This acclaimed quartet is joined by soprano Cecile Kempernaurs in a musical portrait of the renowned flamboyant English king and his six wives. Contemporary compositions by the Dutch award-winning composer Piet Swerts are juxtaposed with original English ensemble music of Henry VIII and his court composers.

END-OF-SEASON RECEPTION

A lobby reception at intermission will celebrate the conclusion of our 24th Season, and provide complete details on everything that will be coming to you in the 25th Anniversary Season, 2011-2012!
